

SURVIVAL GUIDE

New York City Subway:

The New York City subways are very safe, and run 24 hours/day. The closest subway stop to Columbia University is the 116th St. stop on the 1 (one) train.

If you are staying at the Sheraton NY Hotel and Towers: Walk to 50th St. and Broadway. There will be an entrance to the 1 Train. Enter on the platform marked "Uptown & the Bronx." Exit at 116th St.

If you are staying at the Hotel Newton: Walk to 96th St. and Broadway. There will be an entrance to the 1, 2, and 3 Trains. Walk to the platform marked "Uptown & the Bronx." Take the 1 train. Do NOT take the 2, 3 trains. Exit at 116th St.

MetroCards:

In order to ride the subway, you must purchase a MetroCard from an automatic machine. First select, "Get New Card." Then you have two options:

Unlimited Card: purchase a 7-day pass, if you anticipate using the subways twice a day throughout the week.

Pay per ride: Buy a single ride, or buy a card with $10 or $20 for multiple rides.

Taxi / Car Service:

Within Manhattan, you can hail a taxi cab from any major street.

If you are staying in Fort Lee, New Jersey at the Holiday Inn or the Doubletree, you should take the conference shuttle. If you miss this shuttle, you may use Samsung Car Service at (201) 224 – 6000 for about $30.

Emergency:

To reach the Columbia University Department of Public Safety for a security, fire or medical emergency:

From a campus phone: Dial 99

From a cell phone: (212) 854-5555

Closest Hospital:

St. Luke's Hospital, at Amsterdam Ave. & 113th St., just South of Columbia University's campus.
