

Propargylic esters are best substrates for Au-based catalysts. However, under typical conditions the starting Au-coordinated propargylic ester 1 is in rapid equilibrium with Au-vinylidene carbenoid species 2 and with Au-allene species 3.