We are developing a library of oligophenylene-based species in which core, terminal, and endcapping groups can be varied systematically.

UV/Vis and fluorescence data for dimeric and trimeric members of our library are shown here.